"Vision without action is merely a dream; action without vision is merely passing time; but vision and action together can change the world"-

~ Sudha Murthy

It is that time of the year, once again, when the freshmen have settled in, the Ivy Hall is full of students and the curiosity to explore more in the campus is lingering in their minds. A sense of opportunity and participation is around and the teaching-learning process is adding feathers for faculty members and students. The passion to stay awake late nights for worthy manuscripts and relaxation post lectures with a game of badminton is the survival tactics used by the aspiring lawyers. This has brought forward many leaders and leadership skills. The Editorial Board curates every issue of the newsletter with a new perspective and shape. The highlights from the month of September and October have been put in a nutshell for the readers. Happy reading!
